

Accommodation information

A) Accommodation for residential participants and scholarship holders

For participants who booked "Tuition, room & board" (the "Residential option"), and for scholarship holders, accommodation will be provided in the student's lodge houses "Bolligen", "Fellergut" or "Tscharnergut" in a single room with shared bathroom for 2 persons. These student accommodations provide a kitchen on the floor, washing machines and internet. Regrettably, bringing spouses and/or children is discouraged, as there are no suitable facilities for families. The accommodation is not on campus. The short train trip to Berne University takes about 15min. or less. For more information, please see Bernese Student Lodging Association VBSL.

B) Accommodation options for "tuition only" participants

Participants who choose "tuition only" are responsible to book their accommodation themselves. Options range from student's lodges to hostels to hotels. As the university does not have a typical campus, all of them are located in the city, easily accessible by public transport or bike. Please find a range of these very suitable options below:

Student's Lodges

The student's lodge houses are comfortable, but not luxurious. Regrettably, bringing spouses and/or children is discouraged, as there are no suitable facilities for families.

The house in Bolligen is newly built. There are 106 single rooms with shared bathroom (for 2 persons), three single rooms with own bathroom, and 30 single rooms with own bathroom and kitchen. The house provides a kitchen on the floor, common rooms, washing machines and internet. The short train trip to Berne University takes about 15 minutes.

At the Fellergut there are 70 single rooms with shared bathroom (for 2 persons), and seven single rooms with own bathroom. The house provides a kitchen on the floor, common rooms, washing machines and internet. The trip to Berne University takes about 5 minutes by train. Please note that this student lodge is quite old and will be renovated in the future.

Tscharnergut has been renovated in 2012. There are 109 single rooms with own bathroom. The house provides a kitchen on the floor, common rooms, washing machines and internet. The trip to Berne University takes about 5 minutes by train.
